Decorative Dolls of Paris Art, Fantasy and Serendipity!

Imagine an artful blend of imagination, humor and unparalleled craftsmanship, and you will readily understand why the French Cerri' Art decorative dolls continue to enjoy the praise of art critics and selective collectors. Born in 1986, Cerri' Art well deserves their reputation for creating one of the most original and typical expressions of Parisian artistic handicrafts.

Just five miles from the center of Paris, the romantic Seine winds its way through the commune of Suresnes. Here, the artisans create their unique dolls in the Cerri' Art atelier (workshop). Though the styles change constantly with the vision of each artist, the meticulous attention to detail and fine materials exceed collector demands for long-lasting quality.

The artisan shapes and decorates each doll's head according to his inspiration – with stunning coiffures, hats and scarves – without, of course, forgetting the minute details of the face, hands and feet. Then it's time for the artisan to select a very grand fabric to ceremoniously fashion costumes for Mesdames et Messieurs to enhance their distinctive personality. Voila! Each doll becomes a work of art, absolutely original and unique.

“ Les Mairies” – Bride and Groom

Thanks to their flexible bodies, CERRI'ART dolls adopt all kinds of playful poses, even the most unexpected. Far from being inert objects, they are living creatures who radiate fantasy, gaiety and humor and capture your attention the moment you enter a room. To the delight of collectors, they are traveling all over the world – no doubt in First Class!
