Ceramiques Fantastiques!

Meet Ceramiste Marie Pastorelli –
Delivering the style of Paris and the Colours of Provence

Marie Pastorelli is as warm and authentic as the extraordinary ceramic jewelry she creates. She is an independent artisan who lives and works in the small Provencal commune of Auriol, France, near Nimes. In the middle of her career, Marie has purchased a home where she is building a new atelier (studio) on site – a place to blend everyday life with her inspired work. Her ceramic designs are dynamic, elegant and colorful, a stunning mix of vibrant enamels and precious metals.

Marie began her career as a ceramist in 1992, after studying fine arts at the Art School of Digne les Bains, France. Each of her individual creations and matching sets of jewelry blends sculptural beauty and organic fusions of color. In addition to participating in international trade fairs, Marie offers her work through select retailers and at the Atelier d'Arts boutique in Paris.
